

I wish to register my strong opposition to the relaxation of current media ownership policy. Democracy is clearly served by the broadest possible diversity in reporting and opinion. The proposed changes directly threaten our access to critical information and analysis.